Tenure of Awards

Students granted a scholarship award are required to continue their education until the end of year 13, unless the School determines in its sole discretion that their academic profile excludes them from doing so. Continuity of the award is subject to sustained satisfactory performance and the school reserves the right to reduce or terminate the award on giving a term's notice.

If a student leaves the school at any time before completing their A level studies, they will be required to pay back in full, the face value of the award that has been received for each academic year that they have received it.
