

LANGLEY SCHOOL

SENCO

Required for September 2019

Langley School is a popular and very successful independent senior school in South Norfolk. We are seeking to appoint a full time Special Educational Needs Assessor.

We have a busy and well-resourced Learning Support department and require a qualified assessor to join our passionate and dedicated team, and to take charge of testing and monitoring and reviewing pupils with SEN.

The successful candidate will hold a teaching qualification, experience of teaching & training and familiarity with the national curriculum for this area of expertise. You will have a strong commitment to safeguarding and evidence of continued professional development.

The school welcomes applications from both experienced SENCO's and those passionate about Special Educational Needs wishing to specialise in this area

Langley School is one of the most advanced, well-resourced and forward-looking independent schools in the East of England. The school has an inclusive ethos and a commitment both to academic excellence and to meeting the broader needs of every pupil.

Further details and an application pack are available on our website www.langleyschool.co.uk or please contact the Human Resources department, on the number or email below.

The Closing date is midday, Friday 31st May 2019

Langley School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.
Applicants must be willing to undergo a Disclosure and Barring Service check.

Langley School, Langley Park, Loddon, Norfolk NR14 6BJ
T: (01508) 528044 / E: recruitment@langleyschool.co.uk
Langley School (1960) Ltd. registered at Companies House no. 656498
Registered Charity no. 311279